PROCESSIONAL, Hymn 244, v.-1 Sunday School and Congregation

INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

"HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, LORD GOD ALMIGHTY."

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM - - - Congregation

THE GLORIA

HYMN OF THE NEW JERUSALEM

Members of the Sunday School assisted by the Choir.

Choir "Rhine"

Jerusalem! my happy home!
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

No dampish mist is seen in thee,
Nor cold nor darksome night;
There every soul shines as the sun;
There God himself gives light.

School "

O happy harbor of the saints,
O sweet and pleasant soil,
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

There lust and lucre cannot dwell,
There envy bears no sway;
There is no hunger, heat nor cold,
But pleasure every way.

In thee no sickness may be seen,
No hurt, no ache, no sore;
There is no death nor ugly dole,
But life for evermore.

Jerusalem! Jerusalem!
God grant I once may see,
Thy endless joys, and of the same
Partaker aye to be.

SCRIPTURE LESSON—Revelation 21 : 1-5

Scholar

Her walls are made of precious stones,
Her bulwarks diamond square,
Her gates are of right orient pearl,
Exceeding rich and rare.

Her houses are of ivory,
Her windows crystal clear;
Her tiles are made of beaten gold,
There angels do appear.

Her turrets and her pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Her very streets are paved with gold
Surpassing clear and fine.

Within her gates doth nothing come
That is not passing clean;
No spider's web, no dirt, no dust,
No filth may there be seen.

Choir "Rhine"

Ah! my sweet home, Jerusalem,
Would God I were in thee.
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see.

"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," Master Broe Blonquist

TWENTY-FOURTH PSALM - - - Sunday School

School "Rhine"

Her saints are crowned with glory great,
They see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice;
Most happy is their case.

But there they live in such delight,
Such pleasure and such play,
As that to them a thousand years
Doth seem as yesterday.

Choir "Audientes"

We that are here in banishment
Continually do moan;
We sigh and sob, we weep and wail,
Perpetually do groan.

Her vineyards and her orchards are
Most beautiful and fair,
Full furnished with trees and fruits
Exceeding rich and rare.

Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall,
Our pleasure is but pain;
Our joys scarce last the looking on,
Our sorrows still remain.

Her gardens and her gallant walks
Continually are green;
There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.

(Audientes)

There nectar and ambrosia flow;
There musk and civet sweet,
There many a fair and dainty drug
Is trodden under feet.

Quite through the streets with silver sound
The Flood of Life doth flow;
Upon whose banks on every side
The Wood of Life doth grow.

There cinnamon, there sugar grow,
There nard and balm abound;
What tongue can tell or heart contain
The joys that there are found?

There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring:
There evermore the angels sit,
And evermore do sing.

"Angels Ever Bright and Fair,"

Master Broe Blonquist

O then thrice happy should my state
In happiness remain,
If I might see her glorious seat,
And princely place attain;

There David stands, with harp in hands,
As master of the choir;
Ten thousand times that man were blest
That might this music hear.

And view her gallant gates, her walls,
Her streets and dwellings wide,
Her noble troop of citizens,
And mighty king beside.

Our Lady sings Magnificat
With tones surpassing sweet;
And all the virgins bear their part,
Sitting about her feet.

There be the prudent Prophets all,
The apostles six and six;
And glorious martyrs in a row,
And Confessors betwixt.

Te Deum doth Saint Ambrose sing,
Saint Austin doth the like;
Old Simeon and Zachary
Have not their songs to seek.

There doth the crew of righteous men
And matrons all consist;
Young men and maids that here on earth
All evil did resist.

There Magdalene hath left her moan,
And cheerfully doth sing
With blessed Saints whose harmony
In every street doth ring.

And though the glory of each one
Doth differ in degree,
Yet is the joy of all alike
And common (as we see).

With cherubins and seraphins
And holy souls of men
To sing thy praise, O Lord of hosts,
And join the loud Amen—

Jerusalem! my happy home!
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

NOTICES FOR THE WEEK.

TODAY, 12.00. Main department of the Sunday School. Attendance, June 1, 239.

2.30. Salem Street Branch.

2.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. "Practical Humility," Matt. 23: 1–11; leader, Miss Grace D. Wright.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the pastor, The True Rising in Life. Miss Onasch will sing.

4.00. At the Chapel, sermon to the graduating class of the Seminary by Professor Platner.

MONDAY, 7.00. At the South Lawrence Church, supper of the North Essex Congregational Club; discussion on the foreign nationalities in Lawrence. All men of this congregation are invited to join.

TUESDAY, 7.45. At the Chapel, address by Professor Emerson of the University of Vermont.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid-week meeting, the special monthly one for the Sunday School. Address on the work of the Boston Floating Hospital by either Rev. Rufus B. Tobey or Mr. John R. Anderson.

TUESDAY, 10.45. At the Chapel, graduating exercises.

Inspirited by winning the banner at Ballardvale, the Y. P. S. C. E. held a brisk and pleasant strawberry festival Tuesday night. The social committees of the present and past terms were in charge. While they have hearty gratitude for all who assisted them so well, they must thank especially Messrs. Welch, Nichols and Stevens of the Boston & Maine Y. M. C. A. orchestra for their unusual kindness.

Our Sunday School picnic will be held June 28, at Johnson's Pond, South Groveland.

The life of Mrs. Susan E. (Lovering) Farnham, which closed on earth last Sunday, was a sweet and sunny one, rich in quiet blessing. With something of the distrust of human nature natural to an earnest New England temperament, she had a healthy pleasure in mere living and a strong faith in her gracious God. She forgot weak health in busy household services, and in long, fatal illness "found grace to help in time of need."

She joined the West Church as a young girl after a religious interest in town which had strongly affected the Punchard School, and came into this church at the May Communion of 1878.

The Week

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God ever glorious, blessed Trinity!

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1902.

MORNING WORSHIP at 10.30. Responsive reading, last selection; lesson, Matthew 28; hymns, 304, 339, 334; addresses by Rev. Professor Francis G. Peabody of Harvard University and Mr. Edward C. Carter.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School; 11.50, main department. Attendance September 21 and 28, 191 and 225.

2.30. Salem Street Branch.

3.00. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. "How to pay what we owe fathers and mothers."

6.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. "A searching question," John 21: 15–25; leader, Dr. A. I. Mackintosh.

7.30. Evening worship. Responsive reading, 19th selection; lesson, 2 Timothy 2: 1–15, (Rev. Frederic A. Wilson); hymns, 481, 482, 489; prayer, led by Rev. Clark Carter; addresses by Mr. Gurry E. Huggins, general secretary of the Harvard University Christian Association, Rev. John P. Jones, D. D., Pasumalai, South India, and Rev. Alfred E. Stearns, vice-principal of Phillips Academy.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, Crossing the Jordan, Joshua 3: 9–17; led by a teacher of the Sunday School.

THURSDAY, 6.30. Supper given by the teachers of our Sunday School to other Sunday School teachers in town. The informal social time following will be closed by short talks on The Advantages of a Summer Vacation (Mr. J. Newton Cole), The Advantages of Summer Sessions (Mr. Perley F. Gilbert), How To Secure Study at Home (Rev. George A. Andrews), and The Next Step Forward (Rev. Frederic Palmer).

FRIDAY, 7.45. At the Baptist Church, quarterly meeting of the Andover C. E. Union. Discussion of methods in the society's work.

On Wednesday next, Mr. Edward C. Carter expects to sail for India, there to introduce the Student Y. M. C. A. in the great province of the Punjaub. The affection of many in this congregation will follow him, their sympathy, their prayers and constant interest.

The Home Department of the Sunday School has chosen as officers for the ensuing year: Honorary president, Miss Elmira Jones; president and treasurer, Mrs. James Cullen; recording secretary, Miss Alice Jaquith; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. E. Randall. Mrs. L. F. Dearborn has become visitor for Elm street and Maple avenue.

The Young Ladies' Society of Christian Workers has likewise chosen officers: President, Miss Kate Jenkins; vice-presidents, Mrs. F. T. Carlton and Miss Mabel Carter; secretary, Miss M. Eleanor Holt; treasurer, Miss Mary Richards.

Notwithstanding the bad weather, the Y. P. S. C. E. made almost $20 at its recent flower sale. Miss Edith Valpey was the efficient chairman.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the pastor.

MONDAY, 7.30. With Miss Harriet Carter, 31 Bartlett Street, first meeting of the Mission Study Class. Members will be welcomed; the class will last for about two months; subject, India; the textbook, The Cross in the Land of the Trident. It promises eight interesting evenings for those who gather in the Carters' pleasant sitting-room.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "Conquering new foes," Joshua 5 and 6.

The Sunday School attendance has come back to its fair-weather size. Now let us keep it there.

The Sunday School teachers' conference was a thorough success, with a good supper and a good discussion. We were much indebted to the committee, of which Miss Goldsmith was chairman.

The first sewing meeting of the Woman's Union was held Thursday, and sewing began vigorously. All ladies are invited to enlist in this work, which goes on the second and fourth afternoons of each month.

When the officers of the Woman's Union sent out their circular invitation and announcement of plans last week, they did not forget that the coal strike may change their plans considerably; but they desired to say what they have been hoping to do.

"Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord." Mr. Joseph H. Cole had always been diligent in business, the hard business of following the sea. Late in life he became a Christian, and thenceforth his fervor of spirit seemed to know no growing cold. God's love to him was an inexhaustible theme for him. He sought to "redeem the time" in which he had been silent about that divine grace and mercy. In his death this church has lost one who knew most truly "whom he had believed," and was joyfully persuaded that "He was able to keep that which he had committed to Him."

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1902.

MORNING WORSHIP at 10.30. Responsive reading, 5th selection; lessons, Micah 2: 1–7, 2: 8-11; hymns, 451, 476, 451; sermon by the pastor, 1 Peter 4: 10.

The Sunday School and Junior Endeavor Society will meet as usual. The Senior Y. P. S. C. E., meeting at 6.30, will be led by Mr. Stanley Pratt. A printed exercise will be used, entitled Self-mastery the Secret of Success. At 7.30, the pastor will preach again. Mrs. Erwin Pike and Mr. A. L. Kaiser will sing.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "Renewed Missionary Work in North China. Afterwards, the prudential committee will meet all who wish to join the church at the November Communion.

THURSDAY, 2.30. Sewing meeting of the Woman's Union. 8.00–10.00, first parish social — for all over fourteen. No admission fee will be charged. Newcomers are especially invited for a little music, a little supper, and a good deal of conversation.

A Letter from Miss Graffam, Sivas, Turkey.

"The gift which the Old South sent us for the house came just when we most needed a little money to encourage us to keep on with the work. We had come to a standstill, but decided on the strength of that to continue slowly, trusting that we should in some way be able to finish. Now the lower part of it is almost ready to occupy. The Partridges will move in about two weeks from now, even though they will have carpenters working over them. The hardest thing will be not having any water or drainage.

The water is brought from the mountains in a large stream, which is divided into a number of branches flowing through the streets, usually open. Some of it serves for house water, being drawn off into a courtyard fountain, and some of it serves for the sewer. The water is expensive, and sometimes several families combine on one fountain. If one doesn't have it, he has to go some distance to a public fountain near a mosque.

Now the 'Board' will help us to finish the house, but we have no money to buy water. If it were only a matter of the Partridges' small family, perhaps they could get on; but we are expecting a missionary physician this year, and he also will live in the new house. With all sorts of cases coming to him, good water and good drainage will be indispensable; and so I venture to ask again if the Old South will not help us to buy water. A sufficient supply, providing for the doctor's office, operating room and all, would cost $250, I think. It is not necessary to buy the whole supply at once. In fact, we shall probably have to buy it in small quantities from the neighbors; so that a part of this sum would be thankfully received."

Most of us remember Miss Mary and Miss Winona Graffam. Who will contribute for the comfort, if not necessity, of their house? Gifts, designated for this object, however small, may be given today to Mr. Alden or brought next Sunday. The remainder of Miss Graffam's interesting letter will be read Wednesday night.

WEDNESDAY, 3.30. With Mrs. J. L. Brewster, Locke street, annual meeting of the Andover Auxiliary of the American McAll Association.

7.45. Lecture preparatory to the Communion.

THURSDAY, 3.00. Quarterly meeting and Tea of the Woman's Union. For the information of newcomers, the Woman's Union may be called the "official" organization of the women of the parish. Its meetings are held every Thursday afternoon with varying purposes. The meeting which is to occur this week is the first full gathering of the season. Plans for the winter will be outlined, and all ladies of the congregation are invited to come, not forgetting the 25 cents which constitute the membership fee.

Members of the Prudential Committee propound the following for your prayerful consideration as candidates for reception into this church:

MRS. MARY FRAIZE BAKER,
HARRY STEVENS LOWD.

BAPTIZED, Oct. 19 — Walter Harris, son of William and Mary F. Baker.

The Mission Study Class has reached its necessary limits, and no more members will be received for the present course.

"Everybody had a good time." That was said of the Social Thursday night and, we hope, with literal truth. For the committee and for others, we wish to thank Miss Brooks and the members of the orchestra for their kindness.

NOTES.

Lately the pastor has been testing the preference of the Church between the present Order of Service (in which the Doxology follows the Offering) and the former Order, in which a prayer followed the Offering. Every fifth member was asked his opinion. Aside from those who declared themselves indifferent or suggested still different Orders, 17 favored the present, and 22 the former arrangement. The difference is not large; but among the 22 were a few who seemed to feel a strong preference. Beginning today, therefore, a prayer will follow the Offering.

In most non-liturgical churches like ours the vocal participation of the congregation in the Service is represented by the choir. Since our church has no choir, it is more necessary that the congregation have a large vocal part in the Service and take that part heartily. After today we shall add to the doxology the hymns, the responsive reading, the Lord's Prayer and the Gloria, the Apostles' Creed, which will follow the Gloria. After a thorough use of it, the pastor will ask the congregation to express their approval or disapproval of its employment.

☞ The Junior Y. P. S. C. E. is about to pack a barrel for a Mission School in Marion, Ala. Clothing for a boy of 12 is especially wanted. All articles suitable for such a school may be left at Mrs. Lowd's, 29 Bartlet street, before Wednesday of this week.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "Gideon and the Three Hundred," Judges 6 and 7.

THURSDAY, 10.30. Union Thanksgiving Service. Sermon by Rev. William G. Poor of Lowell. The choir for the day will lead in singing the hymns of one hundred years ago.

Next Sunday morning the Rev. James L. Barton, D. D., of the American Board, will preach the sermon, and our annual offering for foreign missions will be made.

A few of our members have given the church one hundred copies of the new "Endeavor Hymnal." We shall appreciate their generosity and kindness next Sunday night, when the books will be used for the first time.

The new officers of the Courteous Circle are: leader, Mrs. Pratt; vice-leader, Mrs. Frank M. Foster; secretaries, Miss Alice Abbott and Miss Randall; treasurer, Miss Marcia Richards.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

NOTES.

The offering for the American Board last Sunday amounted to $44.

At the Endeavor meeting last Sunday night letters were read from three members of the Endeavor Society in Adabazar, Turkey, and one from an Endeavorer in Madura, India. The Mission Study Class has finished its course on India after "eight very happy evenings together."

The "Endeavor Hymnal" seemed to meet with general favor last Sunday night. It will be used again tonight at the second service.

It is not often that we chronicle the departure of our young people from town. It happens too often. Both the church and the town sustain a steady loss of those who would become among the best of its citizens. Mr. William Leslie's departure, however, means the loss of the president of our Endeavor Society. His tenure of office was short; but his earnest words to the Society two weeks ago will not be forgotten. Our affection and best wishes go with him into the Green Mountains of Vermont, and our hopes to see him again before many months at least on Sundays.

Whosoever thou art that enterest this Church, leave it not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister and those who worship here.

The Holy Child.

Reading in Unison. "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased their joy; they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. For the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as in the day of Midian. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgment and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts shall perform this."—Isaiah 9: 2–7.

TONIGHT, 6.30. Consecration meeting of the Senior Y. P. S. C. E. Subject, "Our Heavenly Home and the Way," John 14: 1–6, Revelation 21: 1–4. Leader, Mr. George B. Ripley

7.30. Christmas Missionary Concert. A printed service will be used entitled "Music in Foreign Missions." It consists of readings in unison and hymns sung in mission lands the world around, together with anecdotes illustrating the power of Christian song in giving the "good tidings."

Two quartets will sing: one consisting of Miss Mary Lindsay, Miss Sadie Trickey, Miss Laura and Miss Ida Farnham: the other, of Miss Trickey, Miss Laura Farnham, Mr. John Morrissey, and Mr. Chester Farmer.

A collection will be taken for the support of a little orphan in India. The cost for a year is $20.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. The lecture preparatory to the Communion. May we have a large gathering on this last night of the year.

THURSDAY, 3.00. Prayer meeting of the Woman's Union with Mrs. S. E. Randall, 23 Central street The leader will conduct a Bible reading with the subject, "The Royal Guest." Please bring Bibles.

7 45. The Courteous Circle will meet with Mrs. F. B. Jenkins, 11 School street. Reports will be given by leaders of the work of the year; helpful thoughts on "Ideals to strive for this year," Hebr. 12: 1–4, 12–14, 28.

From 8.45 to 9.30 there will be an exchange of New Year's Greetings with the "Sunshine Ten" as hostesses.

THE PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE propounds Mr. William Henry Burtt as a candidate for admission to this church, and he is hereby proposed for your prayerful consideration.

Recommendation is made to the church to drop from the roll the name of Ezra Chandler, who became a member in 1838 and whose whereabouts have been long unknown, there being reason to think that he is not living.

Neighborhood prayer meetings during the Week of Prayer were approved.

It was voted to defer the supper, usually connected with the annual meeting, until later in the season.

By next Sunday the treasurer hopes to reach with the needed material all who desire weekly pledge envelopes.

The Salem Street Branch of the Sunday School held a fair a week ago Saturday at the house of Miss Towne, to enable them to buy a load of wood for a poor family. It was a bright, pretty scene, and the table was covered with articles skillfully made by members of the school.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

It is several years since we have observed this week in any special outward manner. Now that we are to do so, all members of the parish are requested to join in the observance. If we are unable to attend the meetings, still let the new year start with a song of cheer, a note of courage, a prayer of consecration, a petition to God for His blessing on our community.

The cottage prayer meetings will be held in four different parts of the town; and those who live in the respective neighborhoods are especially invited to attend them.

The General Theme will be

THE CHRISTIAN HOME.

MONDAY, 7.30, with Miss Towne, 53 Salem street. Prayers for our Schools, both Sunday and week-day schools. Participation may deal with The Reasons that brought Oneself to Christ.

TUESDAY, 7.30, with Dr. Gilbert, 115 Main street. Prayers for Parents. Participation may appropriately take the form of Tributes to Early Home Influences.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45, at the Church. Prayers for Grown People who have not become Christians. Participation may express Personal Testimony to One's Own Faith.

THURSDAY, 7.30, with Mr. Carlton, 67 Central street. Prayers for Childhood. Participation may include encouragement for cultivating A Simple and Childlike Faith among the Young.

FRIDAY, 3.00, with Mrs. Hardy, 13 Maple avenue.

The sick: — Rev. J. H. Babbitt, 130 Main street; Mrs H. E. Carruth, 30 Chestnut street; Mrs. J. F. Cole, 21 Elm street; Miss Anne Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Mrs. Charles Orcutt, 8 Maple avenue; Miss Sadie Torrey, 4 Florence street.

Dec. 31, The Church voted to drop the name of Ezra Chandler from its roll, on account of long ignorance of his whereabouts, there being reason to think that he is no longer living. A letter of dismission was granted Mr. Edward C. Carter to any church of Christ in India, the use of the letter being limited to one year.

Will The Courteous Circle please take notice that subscriptions to The Silver Cross (price 75 cents) may be left, with address, at Miss Dean's, Main street, during the next week?

THURSDAY, 3.00. With Mrs. J. W. Barnard, Elm Square, Home Missionary Meeting of the Womon's Union. Subject, Puerto Rico.

FRIDAY, 7.30. Annual Meeting of the Church. It is expected that this meeting will be adjourned to Friday, Jan. 23.

SUNDAY EVENING.

The Theme for tonight is

INDIVIDUAL WORK FOR INDIVIDUALS.

In the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6.30 this subject will be considered: "Bringing Others to Christ," John 1: 40–45; leader, Miss Sarah H. Trickey,

At 7.30 the pastor will continue with the same thought upon the text: "And his sister stood afar off," Ex. 2: 4

SATURDAY, 3.00. With Mrs. J. L. Brewster, Locke street, meeting of the McAll Auxilliary.

Mr. William Henry Burtt was received into the membership of this church last Sunday. His present address is Rochester, N. H., where he is teaching.

Members of the Home Department will be grieved to know of the death of Mrs. Guy Foster in Council, Idaho, three weeks ago. It was a room in the Council parsonage which the Home Department furnished a year since in memory of Mrs. Benjamin Brown. There can be no doubt that the hardships of the dwelling which the home missionary and his family occupied before the parsonage was built, hastened if they did not cause Mrs. Foster's death. She was a sweet and steadfast woman, as revealed in the numerous letters which she wrote to our superintendent.

"The noble army of martyrs praise Thee."

Did the observance of the Week of Prayer "pay?"

Only He knows who holds the Book of Life. While the gatherings for prayer were not large, they were friendly, simple and devout. Moreover, outside the meetings, we believe that some prayed in secret for God's blessing upon our church in the new year.

THE SICK—Rev. J. H. Babbitt, 130 Main street; Miss Anne Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Grace Downing, 18 Maple Ave; Miss Laura Farnham, 60 High street; Mr. H. M. Hayward, 60 Chestnut street; Mrs. A. S. Lindsay, 11 Washington avenue; Mrs. Charles Orcutt, 8 Maple avenue; Mrs. E. C. Pike, 38 Chestnut street; Mrs. S. E. Randall, 23 Central street.

FROM A LETTER OF MR. EDWARD CARTER TO THE PASTOR.

"I have had a most prosperous journey so far. The work I had in hand in England, Scotland, France and Switzerland was greatly facilitated by the universal cordiality and hospitality extended to me, and though I had little time for sight seeing, I managed to take in a good deal. I didn't get into Westminster Abbey or Parliament, but I am of the opinion that I got a much better understanding of English customs, conditions and ideals than many who go to "all the places of interest."

Since getting to Ceylon, I have been having a wonderful time. As I came away from a meeting at the Y. M. C. A., here at Kandy, tonight, it seemed to me that I would be willing to work for a dozen years just to have such an experience. To be sure nothing remarkable occurred, but somehow or other the way in which the young men seemed to appreciate my visiting their rather small Association, the manner in which they seemed to hang on every word I said, the hopefulness which seemed to sparkle from their eyes when some bright thought shone into their hearts, would make anyone long to throw in his life with such as these.

I am leaving Ceylon tomorrow (Nov. 27) for Madras. Christmas will find me in Bombay, probably, and then my work will carry me to Allahabad, Lucknow, Delhi, Cawnpore and Calcutta."

Next Sunday we shall make our annual offering for the Home Missionary Society. Rev. W. S. Hawkes, formerly superintendent for Idaho and Utah, will preach the sermon.

7.30. Evening Worship. The observance of Christian Endeavor Day will be concluded. The president of the society will preside. Members of the society will render special music. The pastor will speak about "Friends of the Master," John 15; 14, 15.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our mid week meeting. Subject, "The Making of Christian Manhood in the Far West."

THURSDAY, 3.00 Dr. Julia Mortimer Plummer will address the Woman's Union on "Sacred Secrets." All mothers, especially young mothers, are invited. Members are asked to extend the invitation beyond our own parish limits, for there are many who would like to hear Dr. Plummer, and it is several years since she has been here.

The February meeting of The Courteous Circle will be postponed till the 12th.

THE SICK—Rev. J. H. Babbitt, 130 Main street; Mr. W. H. Carter, Carter's Corner; Grace Downing, 18 Maple avenue; Miss Hodgdon, 173 Main street; Mrs. Lindsay, Miss Mary Lindsay, 11 Washington avenue.

Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor:—

I greet you and wish you well. Your body stands prominent among the organizations which strive toward a realization of interdenominational and international Christian fellowship as well as among those which stand for ideals of true citizenship; that is, for the cultivation, not alone of a high standard of civic and social righteousness, but of the strength, courage and common sense necessary for living up to such a standard.

With all good wishes,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

At 8.30, the prudential committee will meet all who desire to witness for Christ at the next communion.

At 8.30 also, Miss Cole will meet all who would like to sing in a chorus choir at the Sunday evening service. Rehearsals will be held at 8.30—8.45 every Wednesday night.

THURSDAY, 3.00. In the vestry, Foreign Missionary meeting of the Woman's Union. The new and interesting text book on India, "Lux Christi," will be taken up at this meeting.

7.45. In the vestry, quarterly business meeting of the Y. P.S. C. E. It will be followed by a weights and measures guessing social.

THE REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL for 1902 revealed a home department of 111; average attendance in the senior department, 110; intermediate 14; primary, 41; sub-primary, 10; Salem street branch, 8; total, 183.

This average is a decrease of 46 from that of 1901,—a startling loss. It was caused, in part at least, by (1) the suspension of the Scotland school, (2) the suspension of one or two adult classes, (3) some especially stormy Sundays. Beyond these facts, however, it is true that the average attendance has been gradually but steadily decreasing both in the Free Church Sunday school and our own for the last five years. Our teachers should examine their record books, and, if they find loss or irregularity, discover where the trouble lies. Considering the unfavorable circumstances of the present winter, the attendance has been quite good, and by the end of the year we hope that the report will have climbed back towards its 1897 figure, 249.

The principal benevolences of the school were these: the Home Department maintained a day school throughout the year in the Aintab district of Turkey, and furnished a room in the Council (Idaho) parsonage in memory of Mrs. Benjamin Brown. The Salem street branch furnished fuel for a poor family. The Senior Department gave $50 for the parish debt, supported a scholar in Fisk Universiiy, and gave $116 to other objects. The primary department supported a child orphaned by the famine in India.

6.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. Consecration meeting, "Bible Lessons from Men that Failed"; leader, Miss Maud M. Cole.

7.30. Evening Worship. The new chorus choir will lead the singing for the first time. Sermon by the Rev. Geo. A. Andrews.

TUESDAY, 4.00. With Miss Jenkins, 116 Main street, The Young Ladies' Society of Christian Workers.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Lecture preparatory to the Communion.

THURSDAY, 2.30. Sewing meeting of the Woman's Union with Mrs. S. E. Randall, 23 Central street.

THE SICK: — Miss Anne Cuthill, Essex street; Mr. James Fairweather, Abbot street; Mrs. James Hovey; Mr. James Ryley, Brick block; Mrs. Samuel Smith, Mineral street.

The Boston Student Volunteer League will hold a rally in Park Street Church, Boston, tomorrow at 10, 2.00, and 7.30. Mr. Harry Hicks, Professor Wells, and Bishop McVicker will be among the speakers. The program is uncommonly interesting, especially for the morning session.

In regard to our vestry services, "these calamities be overpast"; and it is to be hoped that our congregations will return from their scattering, and that the various society meetings, which have felt the depression of the principal gathering, will increase in size. The Woman's Union is sewing for the Kurn Hattin Homes for Destitute Children, Westminster, Vt. More can be done if more will come to these pleasant sewing meetings. The Young Ladies' Society of Christian Workers will consider "Current Events in Home Missions" this week. The pastor is still engaged Sunday evenings in delivering the stereopticon lecture on Missions, which is to be given through the State by the State Committee on Missionary Work. Mysteriously to him. our own evening congregations seem to be increasing in his absence, and we hope for the largest of the winter tonight, to greet Mr. Andrews and join with the new chorus choir.

The prudential committee has voted to hold the annual supper March 20. It was voted, also, to ask the ladies to employ a caterer for that occasion.

Harriet M. Ricker, who has gone to a much higher school than any earthly one, was a dear child in our Sunday School. Her twelve years were years of intense enjoyment and an eagerness in living too great for a fragile frame.

The duty of the church to the school and of the school to the church. What more can be done to increase the interest in the school, in the study of the lessons, in spiritual things? How can new scholars be secured and retained? Deut. 11 : 19-28; 4 : 9; Neh. 8 : 1-8; 1 Tim. 4 : 11; Matt. 28 : 20.

THURSDAY, 2.30. Sewing meeting of the Woman's Union with Mrs. E. K. Jenkins, 39 School street.

SATURDAY, 7.45. Rehearsal of the Chorus Choir. All who wish to join this choir which is to lead the singing at the Sunday night service are requested to be present. If any wish to join but cannot be present next Saturday night, Miss Cole would like them to notify her before then.

The Sick — Miss Anne Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Harry Lowd, 29 Bartlet street.

The Parish has re-elected its officers to serve during the year 1903–4, excepting that Mr. Shaw was elected trustee of the Ministerial Fund. The parish debt is now covered within $225 by payments and pledges,—a good achievement for the last few years. A new bell is to be purchased.

One of the India famine orphans supported by members of our church is in the orphanage at Ahmednagar, superintended by Mr. S. R. Modak, a Hindu lawyer, and his wife. Mr. Modak writes:

"Sakya is too young to begin any particular course of training. He must play all he can and lisp the Lord's Prayer. When the other boys were choosing work, however, he and two or three other boys of his age went out and gathered a handful each of dry sticks to be used as fuel.

"We want the children first of all to know that Jesus loves them and that they should love him. Then we want to make them feel it is their duty to be useful and helpful to themselves and to others."

In forwarding this letter, Miss Emily Wheeler writes:

"It is heart-rending to hear from Miss Nugent that her famine funds are exhausted, and over two hundred little girls and boys must be turned into the streets unless aid can be secured."

The annual support costs $20.

THE CHURCH SUPPER.

Tomorrow night the annual church supper will take place. The social hour will begin at six. The supper will be held at quarter before seven. The roll-call will follow, with the reading of letters from absent members. Dr. McElveen, who had accepted an invitation to speak, has been obliged to break engagements for the present on account of illness. The evening will end, therefore, with further meetings and greetings of the scattered members of our church.

The following are expected at the supper: (1) members of the church; (2) pew-holders whose names are on the official list; (3) members of other churches worshipping with us. If these lines meet the eye of any who has received no invitation and yet is included in one of the three classes mentioned, let him consider himself invited and wanted as a matter of course.

Members of the church who desire to contribute to the cost of the supper may do so tomorrow night, giving what they wish to Mr. Alden, or next Sunday enclosing it in a marked envelope.

TUESDAY, 4.00. With Miss Jenkins, The Young Ladies' Society of Christian Workers.

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Our midweek meeting. Subject, "Christ in the Temple."

THURSDAY, 2.30. Sewing meeting of the Woman's Union. A barrel will be packed for The Kurn Hattin Homes for Destitute Children. Articles intended for it may be brought to the vestry. Clothing for boys between 8 and 14 is desired particularly.

FRIDAY, 3.00. Quarterly meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department, with Mrs. Randall, 23 Central street. A practical talk will be given by Miss Evelyn Henderson, superintendent of the Home Department in Ruggles Street Church, Boston. That department numbers over 500 members.

SATURDAY, 7.45. Rehearsal of the Chorus Choir.

Next Sunday the annual collection for The Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society will be taken.

THE SICK — Mr. Walter Buxton, Summer street; Mrs. John Chandler, 505 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury; Miss Anne Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Mrs. Jasper Rea, 109 Elm street.

Unpaid annual dues can be placed in the envelopes.

FRIDAY, 3.00 — 7.00. Social of the Junior Y. P. S. C. E.

SATURDAY, 7.45. Rehearsal of the Chorus Choir

Nothing except good weather was lacking to the success of the annual supper. The committee had devised a number of skilful, tasteful touches that pleased everyone. Wherever one looked, it was upon a pretty scene. The supper itself was unusually good. Conversation was so brisk that there would have been no place for the proposed speaker of the evening, if he had come. The out-of-town members whom we welcomed were Mrs. L. A. Johnson and Miss Carolne Holmes, Dorchester, and Miss Hattie Kelley, North Andover. Messages were received from Dr. Susan Abbott, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bodwell, Haverhill; Mr. Isaac Clark, Massillon, O.; Mrs. Harry Foster, No. Andover; Mrs. Isabella Harrington, West Lynn; Miss Sara Jones, Lawrence; Miss Susie Jones, Bethlehem, Pa.; Mrs. E. This is a week of holy and tender remembrance. No other week in the world's history was so sad, so majestic, so glad, so influential on all coming time, as that week which lay between Palm Sunday and the morning of Christ's Resurrection. His churches should observe it with thankfulness.

Dr. Julia Morton Plummer was listened to with deep attention by a large number of ladies Thursday afternoon.

Stirred up by Mr. Anderson's talk last Sunday, a number of little girls gave an entertainment of tableaux and recitations, Friday night at Mrs. Newton Jaquith's.

The vestry seldom holds a more active assembly than it did Friday night at the happy social of the Junior Y. P. S. C. E.

The darkness falls on Calvary,
'Tis mid-day, but the sunlight now
Has fled, and nature quakes to see
The anguish on our Saviour's brow.
Denied with scorn, rebuked, reviled,
And crucified and left to die
By those he loved,—ah, sorrow wild
That wrung from him that awful cry,
My God! O why hast thou forsaken me?

'Tis evening in Jerusalem,
But thro' the sad disciples' pain
A holy light reveals to them
The Saviour radiant, risen again.
The doubt, the pain, the anquish past,—
Triumphant over sin and death,
The doubting heart relents at last,
And yielding cries with bated breath,
My Lord, my God! And evermore
Forever clings to the cross the Saviour bore.

O loving heart by sin oppressed,
O weary soul by sorrow riven,
What darkness makes thy day unblest,
What gloomy cloud hides thee from Heaven?
Look up, the Savior speaks to thee,
Stretch forth thy hand and touch his side.
The Light of Heaven is bursting free;
The Light of Heaven is reaching wide;
"Our Father" cry; and lo! his love
Is bursting sun-like from above.

THURSDAY, 3.00. Annual meeting of the Women's Union. Reports for the year and election of officers.

TO THE LADIES OF THE SOUTH CHURCH:

Dear Friends:—

Our work of the winter has, of necessity, been somewhat crippled, and the occasions for calling us together have been few; so let us make this meeting a very enthusiastic one, and show that we are very much alive and ready to do all that in us lies for the church to which we have promised our allegiance.

Let every lady of the church try to be there. All will be needed for next year's campaign, and the treasurer will be present to receive the membership fees.

Tea will be served in the parlor at the close of the meeting.

Hoping to see you all on Thursday, I am,

Very sincerely,

MARY ALICE ABBOT.

TUESDAY.

The Andover Conference will meet in the First Congregational church of Lowell, at 2.45 and 6.00. The programme will be found in the pews this morning.

For the evening we are more closely interested in the Angelus Player Concert which the Y. P. S. C. E. is to give in the Town Hall at 8 o'clock. The object appeals to us all. It is to help clear off that lingering parish debt of ours. The tickets are set at 25 and 35 cents, and the program is attractive. Make it your business to help.

Rondo Brilliante, Op. 62, ... Weber
Violin solo,—Cavatina, ... Raff
MISS ELLIS.

The officers of the Woman's Union for the ensuing year are: President, Miss Mary Alice Abbot; vice-president, Mrs. J. W Barnard; secretary, Miss Edith Valpey; treasurer, Miss Ellis; chairmen—prayer meeting committee, Mrs. John Alden; foreign missions, Miss Mabel Carter; home missions, Miss Jackson; hospitality, Miss Emily Torrey; domestic, Mrs. S. E. Randall.

Raised between the earth and heaven,
Now our bell is set on high,
In the Name of Him Who giveth
Skill and strength and industry.

All our worship, bright and holy,
Shall be marked with earnest peal;
And the witness from the steeple
Shall our faith and love reveal.

When on high it tells the hours
As they pass in storm or peace,
Solemn tones shall then forewarn us,
Soon our life and work shall cease.

For His praise we meekly lay it
As a gift beneath His throne;
All its steady, far-heard music
Shall resound for Him alone.

Thursday

In Wakefield, meeting of the Andover and Woburn Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions.

Notes.

The delegates at the Conference two weeks ago were Miss Ellen Abbott, Mrs. Berry, Dea. Holt and Mr. Shipman.

The new officers of the Y. P. S. C. E., are: president, Miss Winnie Burrt; vice president, Mr. G. W. White; treasurer, Miss L. Mason; recording secretery, Miss A. Bailey; corresponding secretary, Miss F. Abbott; librarian, Miss H. Carter; organists, Misses E. Hardy, E. Hunter, Pratt; chairmen of committees, lookout, Mr. J. Morrissey; prayer meeting, Mr. Shipman; social, Miss Randall; floral, Miss H. Carter; missionary, Miss L. Hardy; temperance and good literature, Miss M. Brown; music, Miss E. Hardy; correspondence, Miss Newman; junior, Miss F. Abbott.

In January, the Home Department of the Bible school gave $37 toward payment of the debt, and now it has given $22.53 for the new bell.

Next Sunday night Miss Emily Wheeler will speak on The India and Armenia Orphans.

Our last church social of the season will take place in the vestries Friday evening, May 22. A pantomine and musical selections will be given and the entertainment will be followed by refreshments.

There will be a sale of candy and flowers in the parlors. Ten cents will be charged for admission to the social. All, excepting children under fourteen years of age unaccompanied by parents, are invited.

A cordial welcome is given to all worshippers with us. Regular sittings may be obtained from Mr. O. W. Vennard.

Wednesday

7.30. Our mid-week meeting, subject, "Paul before Agrippa," Acts 26 19-29.

It was good to be part of an enlarged prayer meeting last Wednesday night. Mr. Shearer will lead the meeting this week, the pastor expecting to be in Great Barrington at the gathering of the State Association.

Thursday

3.00. Home missionary meeting of the Women's Union, subject, "Alaska."

The new executive committee will convene after the meeting to fill vacancies in the committees.

Note

It is a special pleasure to welcome Mr. Blair to the pulpit this morning.

The social announced for this week will be postponed, in view of Dr. Richard's death.

James F. Richards joined this Church by letter at the May Communion, 1873. He served as deacon, 1874-1878 and 1883-1900. For the next two years he was a member of the prudential committee, resigning last January, so that he was an honored and influential member of the governing board of the Church for almost twenty-five years. Each week he was prodigal of time in preparing for his Bible class, and each Sunday he taught it with rare skill.

Miss Mary Graffam has recovered from the attack of typhoid fever which she took as a result of living in the unsanitary conditions which she described in her last printed letter. She writes cheerfully now from Marsovan where she has been visiting as a convalescent.

THE SICK—Mr. J. A. Abbott, 41 Whittier street; Mr. J. L. Abbott, 57 Central street: Miss Annie Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Alexander Morrison, 316 North Main street; Mr. F. E. Morse, Post Office avenue.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE, ADOPTED MAY 27, 1903.

WHEREAS, a wise Providence has removed from our midst, our beloved co-worker, friend and associate, Dr. James F. Richards; and

WHEREAS, we desire to testify our love and respect for the memory of him who for a quarter of a century, in season and out of season, labored with earnest zeal for the fulfilment of the promise of Christ and the establishment of His kingdom in the hearts of His people in this church and in the world; and

WHEREAS, we wish to express our earnest and affectionate sympathy with the household deprived by this dispensation of its earthly head, therefore be it

Resolved: That in our sorrow for the loss of a faithful and beloved friend, we find consolation in the assurance that it is well with him for whom we mourn;

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with his family in their hour of trial and affliction, and devoutly commend them to the keeping of Him Who looks with pitying eye upon the widow and the fatherless.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our records and that a copy be transmitted to the family of our friend as a token of our respect and veneration for his Christian character.

BAPTIZED—June 7, Mary Lawrence, daughter of Frank R. and Mary A. R. Shipman.

We have received for our church portrait gallery a photograph of Dea. George Gould, who was church clerk 1882—'95 and deacon 1879—'96, and from Mr. Charles Newman a photograph of his great-grandfather, Dea. Mark Newman who was deacon 1811—'45. He was principal of Phillips Academy for thirteen years, and the photograph is taken from the painting of him belonging to Phillips Academy. He gave its first land to Abbot Academy, thus making possible the erection of the first building.

Mrs. Nancy E. Bodwell Cole lived most of her life within home's four walls, and was known to many largely through her husband and children. Her hands were ever busy, unselfishly guided by a loving nature. Sorrows came to her strong affections; and during these later years her eyes manifestly took on the expression of those that behold the Unseen and Eternal.

Mrs. Cole joined this church on profession of faith at the September Communion of 1887.

For all are objects of thy care;
Thy love doth all sustain.

If we have love for thee in heaven,
'Tis seen by love on earth:
Love only, love which God hath given,
Doth prove our heavenly birth.

Whate'er we do, where'er we go,
Let love our sonship prove:
Our lives the fire celestial show,
Our thoughts and words be love. Amen.

Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

My Father's house on high
Home of my soul, how near
At times, to faith's foeseeing eye,
Thy golden gates appear.

"Forever with the Lord:"
Father, if 'tis thy will,
The promise of that faithful word.
E'en here to me fulfil. Amen.

Prayer.

Organ Response.

Choir Hymn—"How sweet the tones" (Morrison).

Sermon—"Each Other's Burdens," Galations 6: 2.

Hymn—No. 620.

Ten thousand times ten thousand,
  In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
  Throng up the steeps of light:
'Tis finished, all is finished,
  Their fight with death and sin:
Fling open wide the golden gates,
  And let the victors in.

What rush of hallelujahs
  Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
  Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
  And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
  A thousand fold repaid!

O then what raptured greetings
  On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting severed friendships up,
  Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
  That brimmed with tears of late,
Orphans no longer fatherless,
  Nor widows desolate. Amen.

Hymns — 490, 507, 500.

Choir Hymns — " Hark, hark ! my soul ! " and Soprano solo.

Sermon — " The Golden Church ", Exodus 25 : 31.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School ; 11.50, main department. Today is Rally Sunday in the school. There will be special singing, and Professor Charles O. Day will give the address. All invited. Attendance last Sunday, 200.

6.30. Consecration meeting of the Y P. S. C. E. " Why and how we should bear witness for Christ ", Acts 5 : 27–32 ; leader, the president. Preparatory prayermeeting, 6.15 in the parlor.

7.30. Evening worship. Sermon by the pastor, " Time Enough ", 1 Peter 4 : 3.

Tuesday

4.00. Annual business meeting of the Young Ladies' Society of Christian Workers, 116 Main street.

Wednesday

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, " Reviving Old Blessings ", II Samuel 6 : 1–19.

Thursday

3.00. Prayermeeting of the Woman's Union. Subject, Matt. 6 : 9. All ladies cordially invited.

6.00. Supper and regular meeting of the Courteous Circle of The King's Daughters. Members are requested to be prompt. Miss Averill of the Deaconess' Hospital, Boston, will give an address. The treasurer requests members to put all unpaid contributions in the October envelope, or otherwise designate it, so that all funds may be in her hands at the November meeting.

After an unusually long vacation the Sunday School has opened well in point of numbers. The attendance has been 214 and 200. The changes in the teaching force have been many, and the superintendent's work has not been easy.

We are so used to the Sunday School as a part of the church that it is surprising to learn that there are people among us who knew the church years before it had a school. It may be said of Mrs. Robert Callahan, whose ninetieth birthday many of us gladly remembered on Friday, that she did not need the Sunday School to teach her "love and good works"; but most of us need this latter-day method of the church's teaching. Especially we want every young person of our parish in the school.

We are anxious for older people as well in the school. They will find two attractive classes, – Dea. Kimball's, meeting in the church, and Judge Bell's in the smaller vestry.

The Home Department met Friday and reelected its former officers. This department gives those who cannot attend the Sunday sessions a means of connection with the school. It has about 120 members. Among similar departments in the State, its record for missionary gifts has been noteworthy.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a sale a week from Tuesday to raise money for the winter, Christmas and Easter flowers. Preserves, candies, flowers, and a light lunch will be on sale. Remember the date, October 6th.

Regular sittings in this church may be secured of Mr. O. W. Vennard, who will be found in the vestibule on Sundays after twelve o'clock.

10.30 A. M. — MORNING WORSHIP.

Responsive Reading — Page 14 in the Psalter.

Scripture Lesson — 1 Timothy 1 : 1–17.

Hymns — 110, 132, 267.

Sermon — "The Power of Jonathan Edwards," Rev. 22 : 3. 4.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School; 11.50, main department.

6.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. "What Abraham teaches us," Gen. 12 : 1–8; leader, Mr. George W. White. Preparation meeting, 6.15.

7 30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the Rev. William R. Richards, D. D., of New York, Dr. Richards is personally known to many Andover people. To others it is enough to say that he is the pastor of the Brick Church, the successor of Henry Van Dyke and Maltbie D. Babcock.

Tuesday

5.00–10.00. Indoor lawn party of the Y. P. S. C E., for the flower fund. Sale of flowers, candies, preserves. There will be a restaurant, also, for light suppers.

Wednesday

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "God's Free Grace," 2 Samuel 7 : 4–16.

Thursday

2.30. Sewing meeting of the Woman's Union.

Friday

3.00. Social of the Home Department. The Visitors extend an earnest invitation to all the members, one of whom will give a talk on the wonders of the Yellowstone Park, with photographs.

The announcement for Thursday is emphasized by the following LETTER TO THE LADIES OF THE SOUTH CHURCH:

Dear Friends: —

In the Book of Ecclesiastes are the words, "Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a three-fold cord is not easily broken."

The command of the Lord, "Go forward," comes to us this Autumn, as it came to the Israelites of old; and wherever our Red Sea shall lead us, shall we not answer, remembering always that beyond the Wilderness of Shur was the Promised Land, "I will go in the strength of the Lord."?

Shall we not make our beloved church and her interests our first thought this winter? To this end the officers of the Women's Union ask your cordial coöperation with them in the work of the society, and that you will set aside Thursday afternoon so that the meetings may feel the influence of your presence.

The social committee are planning for a rally of the women of the church for October 29th, and ask that names of any women not likely to be on our list be sent as soon as possible, to Miss Anna B. Abbott.

Your president wishes to thank you for making her work so pleasant for the past two years, but begs leave to remind you that the Women's Union will not be an ideal organization until its roll of one hundred members is increased two fold and possibly three fold.

Yours in the bond of the South Church,

MARY ALICE ABBOT.

10.30 A. M. — MORNING WORSHIP.

Responsive Reading — Page 18 in the Psalter.

Scripture Lesson — Philippians 4.

Hymns — 32, 355, 620.

Sermon — "God's Responsiveness to Man's Need," Phil. 4: 19. By Rev. Professor John Phelps Taylor.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School; 11.50, main department.

6.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. It is expected that Mr. Robert Bardwell of Phillips Academy and Miss Grace Macallister of Lawrence will speak on Bible Study.

7 30. Evening Worship. This meeting will be one of farewell to Mr. and Mrs. John X. Miller, who are to sail on Thursday for India. A year ago, when we bade farewell to Mr. Edward Carter, Dr. Jones of Pasumalai was the speaker of the evening; and it is in Pasumalai that Mr. Miller is to teach. The final Godspeed to a missionary always brings home to a Christian church the sense of what "the King's business" is; and the gathering tonight should be one of gladness and prayer. The speakers will be Professor Hincks, Rev. Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Miller.

Tuesday

9.00 and 2.00. Semi-annual meeting of the Andover Conference in Chelmsford. The meetings of the Conference in rural churches like Chelmsford are bright, cheery, and social. It is probable that this will be no exception to the rule.

7.45. Quarterly meeting of the Andover C. E. Union. Rev. George F. Kenngott will give his illustrated lecture, "The Yellowstone Park and the Denver C. E. Convention." This lecture represents the best of three lectures given this summer in Lowell to audiences of 700 and 800. A collection will be taken.

Wednesday

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "Sin Forgiven," Psalm 32. Afterwards, the Prudential Committee will meet all desiring to unite with the Church. Letters may be sent to the pastor.

Thursday

2.30. Sewing meeting of the Women's Union.

Friday

7.45. In the Town Hall, Tableaux of Hiawatha. The poem will be recited by an elocutionist from abroad, Mrs. Salsbury, and the tableaux, which will be rich in the delineation of Indian life, will be varied by musical selections. The participants will be mostly, but not altogether, from our own parish.

This entertainment is for the benefit of the Courteous Circle and its relief funds. The object is an appealing one. Let us fill the Town Hall. Tickets (25, 35, and 50 cents) will be on sale at the Bookstore on Tuesday, 7.30 A. M.

The recent collection for the Church Building Society amounted to $9.20 This small sum is not pleasant, in fact is shaming, to record. $0.50 has been received for the new school in Sivas, Turkey.

Dolls, which the King's Daughters are to donate to the Deaconess' Home fair, may be seen at the residence of Mrs. Fred G. Moore, 57 Elm Street, on Thursday afternoon of this week.

Tuesday

10.00 and 1.30. Semi-annual meeting of the Andover Conference in Chelmsford. The meetings of the Conference in rural churches like Chelmsford are bright, cheery and social. It is probable that this will be no exception to the rule.

3.30. With Mrs. John L. Brewster, 11 Locke street, annual meeting of the Andover Auxiliary of the American McAll Association.

Wednesday

10.30 and 2.00. In Park Street Church, Boston, annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Association. Addresses by Mrs. Sangster, Pres. Woolley of Mt. Holyoke, Pres. Slocum of Colorado College, Dr. C. H. Richards and others.

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Lecture preparatory to the Communion.

Thursday

3.00. Rally of the Women's Union. All ladies in any way connected with the South Church parish are urged to be present. The gathering will be largely social. If a member of the committee in charge does not call on you before the rally, it is because your name is not on the list of women in our parish. Please give your name to the pastor that their list may be complete, and come to the rally also.

The prudential committee propounds for your prayerful consideration as candidates for membership in this church, Mr. R. H. Woodland, Mrs. B. H. Woodland, and Misses Olive, Vera and Beulah Woodland, from the Stanton Avenue M. E. Church of Dorchester.

Mr. Edward C. Carter has been appointed General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for all India.

Mention has not been made in the calendar of the pleasant picnic of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School in the last part of September. It was held at Sunset Rock. Mrs. H. Bradford Lewis was the kind giver of ice-cream for the picnickers.

Regular sittings in this church may be secured of Mr. O. W. Vennard, who will be found in the vestibule after 12 o'clock.

LET US GIVE THANKS:

That the recent epidemic of diphtheria in our town (and mostly in our own parish) passed away without a death.

LET US PRAY:

For our missionary friends in India in their enlarged and new duties.

For our Junior Y. P. S. C. E. and its leader, as the meetings begin again today.

Monday

8.00. Bible Study Class. Leader, Mr. Ralph H. Bollard of Harvard University. A few more members will be admitted.

Wednesday

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Address by Miss Honora DeBusk, a teacher in one of the New Mexico mission schools of the Congregational Education Society. She is said to be an attractive and interesting speaker. Last year she did heroic work in the little canon town of Seboyeta, ministering to the people who were visited with a terrible scourge of diphtheria. Thrice she herself had malignant tonsilitis. After a recent visit the priest said: "God bless and keep you, my dear child, I am so glad you are here and are helping the poor people."

Let us not stay away from this meeting in the multiplicity of gatherings this week, but honor a faithful worker.

Thursday

3.00. Prayer meeting of the Woman's Union. Subject: "Hope," Romans 15: 1–4, 13.

7.45. Annual business meeting of the Courteous Circle of King's Daughters, with election of officers.

Friday

7.45. Business meeting and social of the Y. P. S. C. E.

The pastor acknowleges the receipt of $10.10 from an anonymous "friend" for the Royal National Mission for Deep Sea Fishermen. (Dr. Grenfell's Mission.)

Our delegates at the Conference in Chelmsford on Tuesday were Dea. E. F. Holt, Miss Florence Abbott, Miss Elmira Jones.

We are asked to give notice of the mid-week services for world-wide evangelization, to be held every day except Saturday this week in Tremont Temple. Among the well known missionaries who have consented to speak will be Dr. DeForest and Miss Ellen Stone (Congregational), Rev. William Ashmore, (Baptist), Dr. Pott, the distinguished president of St. John's College, Shanghai, and Bishop Restarick of Honolulu, (Episcopalian.)

The Sick. Miss Anne Cuthill, 68 Essex street; Mrs. Moses Gleason, 16 Maple avenue; Mr. Henry Newman, 16 A Essex street; Mr. Llewellyn Pomeroy, 46 Chestnut street.

Regular sittings in this church may be secured of Mr. O. W. Vennard, who will be found in the vestibule after twelve o'clock.

Let us give thanks:

For the wholesome and helpful church gatherings of the past week.

Let us pray:

That Christ may become a living person to those who study in the new Bible Study Class.

The Home Department has lately received an interesting letter from Rev. Guy Foster of Council, Idaho, from which we quote. It will be remembered that a room in the Council parsonage is furnished in memory of Mrs. Benjamin Brown.

"You will miss the good and clear letters of Mrs. Foster. She could do it so much better than I can. She has been promoted. Mrs. —— wrote me some days ago and said, 'Can't you write me something thrilling about your work?' I answered that it was all thrilling. I rode 30 miles the other day through rain to fill an appointment and found nobody present. That was thrilling. The other day a mountain lion chased some little children to school, one and a half miles. When the children got there the teacher was not there, and they had to lock the door and keep him off for two hours. That was thrilling. I went to The Meadows to hold some special meetings. A prominent man there went to one of the ladies attending the service and said, "You ought not to go. If you go, the next thing you know we will have a preacher living right among us, and then he will break up the camp and all our fun.' The 'fun' of that camp consists in dancing, gambling, horseracing and drinking. My field extends 25 miles S. and S. W., 50 miles S. E., there is almost no limit to my field E., it is more than 100 miles N. before you come to any other church, and N. W. I go 60 miles. I bury all the people when they die, marry a good many of them, am the only minister at work, preach regularly at Mickey (20 m.), Indian Valley (15 m.), Meadows (35 m.), when I can in the Seven Devils district, besides preaching at Council every Sunday night except one in the month. The most pressing need for the Master's work is one more man, good and consecrated, who is not afraid to eat without a napkin or sleep without sheets or blankets, who is willing to be insulted because he is silly enough to preach the Gospel, and wise enough to smile and lead the insulter into the Christian life by love and friendship. Our money needs includes (1), a church bell, $80 towards a church bell; (2), I could use a large amount of money in buying good Bibles and giving them away; (3), I could use a good deal of money in our S. S. library; (4), I could use $25 in introducing religious literature into the homes of my people. You would be disgusted to go with me into some of these homes and see what stuff the children are compelled to read if they read anything. Literature counts much in winning a young man from dancing, gambling and drinking. I would like to have in my possession a series of books, which I would arrange according to the individual and loan him one book at a time until he was gradually brought up to the last book, and then I could bring him into a public confession of Christ. I have won three young men recently."

Mrs. Lamson has never spoken here before, though a frequent speaker at devotional and missionary gatherings throughout New England.

7.45. The Christmas meeting of The King's Daughters. Special music. Admission service. Subject, "The Blessed Christmas Message."

The Thanksgiving services were unusually pleasant. A fine sermon was appropriately joined with cheerful hymns and inspiring prayers and the great 40th chapter of Isaiah. We had also an admirable quartet,— Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Foster, Miss Helen White, and Mr. George D. Lawson, jr.

The mention of singing reminds us of the spirited and excellent double male quartet which sang at our last social. All through, the "Military Social" reflected great credit to those who organized and those who carried out its animated order of events.

Mrs. John Phelps Taylor has presented the Home Department with a handsome pulpit Bible to send to Rev. Guy Foster. The Home Department has asked the Church for its disused copies of "Spiritual Songs" to send to him also. This request will come up for action on Wednesday night.

2.30 Sewing meeting of the Women's Union.

This morning we welcome to the pulpit the pastor of the church in the neighboring town of Wilmington, and one who is no stranger to our town, since he passed through our own seminary.

The weather on Thursday was unfavorable for large gatherings, but the ladies who met at the vestry in the afternoon were rewarded by hearing a wise, suggestive and sympathetic address from Mrs. Lamson on the training of the will. The King's Daughters held a helpful meeting in the evening. Two new members were received. Friday night the vestries overflowed with merriment and the Junior Endeavor Society in their first social.

The Home Department Visitors will pack a box during the afternoon for Rev. Guy Foster. All having good, interesting magazines and papers suitable to be sent in this box are asked to send them to the church on Thursday.

7.45. Meeting of the prudential committee with all who desire to join the church at the January Communion. Letters may be sent to the pastor between now and December 23.

Coming Events — Dec. 22, Christmas entertainment for the Sunday School, given by the Women's Union. All members of the congregation are invited to attend; Dec. 23, stereopticon lecture in the vestry by M. Henri Merle d'Aubigné on the work of the McAll Mission; Dec. 27 (A. M.), sermon for the Ministerial Aid Fund by Rev. Edward Hawes.

The Andover Conference at its autumn meeting recommended to the churches of the Conference to suspend their regular midweek prayermeetings during five weeks of the next Lenten season, substituting therefor preaching services, in which the pastors of the Conference should exchange. This recommendation will come up for action Wednesday night.

On Thursday the Women's Union packed a well-furnished barrel for the use of a home missionary pastor in Michigan.

Mrs. Cora A. Symonds, whose lamented death occurred last Sunday, while not a member of this church was a Christian disciple. She was a member of the Home Department of our Bible School.

"The dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

WEDNESDAY, 7.45. Stereopticon lecture on the work of the McAll Mission in France, by M. Henri Merle d'Aubigné. M. Merle d' Aubigné is a son of a famous Swiss historian, and is said to be himself an able and interesting man. A collection will be taken for the McAll Mission.

Next Sunday morning the Rev. Edward Hawes will speak in behalf of the Ministerial Aid Fund (Fund for disabled ministers), and an offering will be made for it.

Even in the days of his greatest physical strength, Mr. William H. Gray was a modest shrinking man, and few knew him who did not see him either in the printing office or his own chamber. In the office he was a typesetter in foreign languages of extraordinary abilities and a gentle, lovable associate. In his room with his books, he was an appreciative follower of modern thought, free in his own theological thinking, and a devout and reverent lover of the Lord Jesus Christ.

He professed his faith here at the March communion of 1872.

Ten enjoyable evenings are promised. The hope is to study a cantata, which may be rendered in a concert after Easter.

Wednesday

7.45. Monthly meeting of prayer for the Sunday-school. Subject, "Buts" and "Ifs" in the Christian Life.

Thursday

2.30. Sewing meeting of the Women's Union.

Friday

6.00. Annual meeting of the Church. 6.00, social half-hour; 6.30, supper followed by the roll-call, reports of the prudential committee, elections, and general business.

Invitations are necessarily restricted to three classes: 1, church-members, and their husbands or wives where these are not members; 2, members of other churches worshipping with us; 3, pew-holders recorded by the assessors.

In the elections, a successor will be chosen in the stead of Dr. Gilbert, the retiring deacon, and a member of the prudential committee succeeding Mr. David Shaw.

Supper will be provided by Page of Lowell. Envelopes will be placed at the plates, into which each attendant may put whatever he wishes towards the expenses. These envelopes will be collected soon after the beginning of the supper. It is understood that the cost of the supper will be fifty cents a plate, and if more than enough is received, the surplus will be applied to the parish debt.

The plan of the supper is as follows: Each of the fourteen tables will be named after a certain subject, and each attendant is asked to choose his table according to the subject which most interests him as either speaker or listener. A limited number can sit at each table; but if your first choice is filled, "try, try again." The subjects and leaders will be as follows: Art, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson; Arts and Crafts, Miss Anna Abbott; Ancestry, Judge Bell; Bicycle and Automobile Tours, Mr. F. B. Jenkins; Flowers and Their Culture, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith; Music and Singers, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Holt; Our Animal Friends, Rev. Clark Carter; Panama Politics, Mr. Shipman; Puzzles and Conundrums, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Foster; Recent Books worth reading, Mrs. Ripley; Radium, Mr. Alden; The World Fairs of '76, '93, '01, '04, Mr. Carlton; Town Topics, Messrs. Gutterson and Shearer; Travel Table, Miss M. A. Abbot.

FRIDAY.

3.30. Meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department. Rev. A. A. Smith of Reading, superintendent of the Department in the Congregational Church there, will be the guest of the afternoon.

NOTES.

The cost of printing these calendars for the next five or six months has been generously assumed by the Senior Y. P. S. C. E.

Today is "Bible Sunday," by the appointment of many religious and educational societies. The announcements for today will show that we are trying to gain the true benefit of the day. While we talk about the Bible, let each of us spend a few moments today with the Bible alone, that it may speak to us.

On Wednesday night we dismissed Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Woodland and family to the Methodist Episcopal church in Malden. Helpful friends as they had proved themselves to be, we have bade them farewell reluctantly.

Permanent sittings in church, for individuals or families, can be obtained by applying to Mr. Oliver Vennard at the close of the morning service. The expenses of the parish, which are estimated at $3500 for the current year, are met largely by weekly pledges, for which cards and envelopes will be furnished by Mr. John Alden.

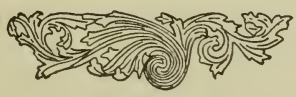
The Week



Calendar for Week beginning September 25, 1904

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 31 in the Psalter. Lessons, Matthew 10: 1-39. Hymns, Nos. 31, 375, 295. Sermon, "The Inevitable Conflict between Religion and the World," Matt. 10: 34.

10.30. The sub primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department of the School. Attendance last Sunday (including home department and visitors) 285. Our rally service was emphatically a success, and the superintendent is grateful to the speakers and singers who helped to make it so.

3.30. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. "How Joseph honored his father." The junior society was given a lively party by the committee from the senior society last week. In a short meeting previous, the juniors brought in about $10 as the accumulation of their mite barrels during the summer.

6.30. Consecration of the Senior Y. P. S. C. E., led by Miss LauraFarnham: Subject, "How the world is growing better," Psalm 37: 1-13. Preparation meeting, 6.15.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the pastor, "When Christ Comes Near," John 9: 1.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Mid-week meeting and Bible Study class. The pastor will lead the first of a series of eight studies in the Epistle to the Philippians. This is an epistle full of faith, of hope, of love. It is good to read, and study of it will disclose still greater riches. Will you not come and join in the search? We should like to have the room full.

THURSDAY.

3.00. Quarterly meeting of the Woman's Union. Miss Hibbard of the Longwood Training School for deaconesses is to be the speaker of the afternoon, and the music will be furnished by members of the Ladies' Double Quartette who sang so acceptably for the Union last year.

The membership fee of twenty-five cents is due at this meeting and may be paid to the treasurer, Miss Ellis. It is hoped that all the ladies of the church will be glad to help in the organized work of the winter and it will be a support to the officers of the society if they feel that they have behind them at least the names of the ladies who attend the South Church.

Tea will be served at the close of the meeting, and all are invited to remain for the social hour.

"As there is some business to be attended to, and as we wish to give all the time possible to the speaker, it will be necessary to begin promptly at three o'clock, and the meeting will close shortly after four o'clock.

Let us have the enthusiasm of numbers."

MARY ALICE ABBOT,

President Women's Union.

Mrs. Erwin Pike, although a member of the Free church, had been numbered in this parish since her marriage. She was a brave, bright, faithful follower of the Lord, with a very attractive, winning nature. To such as she it was said, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

A MESSAGE FROM THE Y. P. S. C. E.

The subject of the C. E. meeting this evening is "Helping One Another," and at this time it seems especially appropriate. We have arranged for an honorary members' meeting, and hope that many older people besides will be present.

The winter is now drawing near, and again the Society has undertaken to provide flowers for the pulpit,—flowers which at the close of the Sabbath are sent to the sick and shut-in. A sale of the Y. P. S. C. E. for this purpose will be combined with a social of the Woman's Union the last of this month. As it is a cause in which both old and young are interested, we ask the hearty cooperation of all.

Our hearty thanks are due to Mrs. James F. Richards for her gift of a fine photograph of her husband, so long a deacon of the church. This is a gift which we deeply appreciate. It will be hung in the vestry, where a collection of portraits of the former pastors and deacons is gradually gathering.

Mrs. Mary L. Shearer was one of the most venerable members of this church. Her death last Monday, at the age of 86, closed an earthly life which had been brave and faithful and devoted. Mrs. Shearer was a sincerely religious woman. She had drunk deep of the words and spirit of the Bible. She loved particularly the psalm of him whom "mercy and truth followed all the days of his life," and she died in a like faith that she should "dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

FRIDAY.

7.45. Business meeting of the Senior Y. P. S. C. E. and election of officers, followed by social.

NOTES.

The Women's Union is sewing upon articles designed for a missionary barrel which is to go to a parish in the forests of Michigan. The missionary family consists of the pastor and his wife, a girl of eleven years, and a grown son and daughter, both of whom are struggling for a college education. Any articles, from overcoats to writing paper, can be made useful in this family; and gifts are solicited, to be left at the vestry any Thursday during this month. The barrel will be packed on November 15, — the day after Thanksgiving.

The annual meeting of the Andover and Woburn Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held in the Seminary Church on Thursday at 10.30 and 2.00.

Mr. Kernohan, better known to Andover people by his former title of Capt. Kernohan of the Salvation Army in Lawrence, will give a concert of religious songs in the Town Hall on Monday evening at eight; tickets, 10 cents. One of his family who will assist him, his oldest son, is a soloist in the choir of Emmanuel Church, Boston.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 45 in the Psalter. Lessons, Jeremiah 1, Hebrews 16: 1–16. Hymns, 100, 440, 560. Sermon, "The Word of the Lord," Jer. 1: 2. Choir Anthem, Isaiah 33: 5, 9, 10. (West.)

> The Lord is exalted; for he dwelleth on high; he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.
> The earth mourneth and languisheth. Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department. Attendance last Sunday, 136.

3.00. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. "The slavery of strong drink."

6.30. Missionary meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. Subject, "The Ing-hok Station in China," where the Society is educating a child. Preparation meeting, 6.15.

7.30. Evening Worship. Address by Rev. Clark Carter on "Juvenile Courts and The Probation System." This address will afford an excellent insight into the improved methods of dealing with criminals. Mrs. C. H. Kitchin, of Lawrence, will sing in the service. An offering will be taken.

MONDAY.

7.45. Choir rehearsal at 64 Central Street.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Midweek meeting. Subject, "Isaiah's Vision," Isaiah 6.

THURSDAY.

10.30. Union Thanksgiving Service. Sermon by the pastor of this church. Soloist, Miss Mabel M. Carter.

FRIDAY.

2.30. Sewing meeting of the Women's Union. The barrel for Michigan will be packed. Let us not forget this. Furnishings for the home are asked, and clothing for the family, including three children,—a young man and woman in the last stage of their education and a girl of eleven years.

Mrs. Dorcas Abbot Clark professed her faith in Christ at the March Communion of 1841 in this church. For more than sixty years she had "witnessed a good confession." One who beheld her life all this time has written of "her gentleness, her mellowness, her tolerance, her graciousness, her moral rectitude." Such lives as hers reveal the exceeding dignity of quiet faithfulness — unto death.

Calendar for Week beginning November 27, 1904

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 47 in the Psalter. Sermon, by Rev. J. Edgar Park of the West Church. Choir Anthem, (Maker.)

Praise the Lord, ye heav'ns, adore Him,
Praise Him, angels, in the height;
Sun and moon, rejoice before Him;
Praise Him, all ye stars of light.
Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken
For their guidance he hath made.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department. Attendance last Sunday, 214.

3.00. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. "What the Passover feast meant."

8.00. At Christ Church Parish House, Y. M. C. A. League.

FRIDAY.

3.00 - 10.00, in the Town Hall. Carnival of Holidays under the auspices of the Courteous Circle.

The "King's Daughters' fair" has been long planned for and worked for faithfully. Now the plans need not be described, and the duty and privilege of honoring the work need not be urged upon the members of our congregation. All that remains for us to do who have neither planned nor worked is to go. A good time to begin to go would be from five o'clock on, when supper will be served. Admission, 25 cents.

SATURDAY.

10.00 - 5.00. Doll exhibit in the lower town hall. Admission for children under twelve, 10 cents.

Miss Jane B. Phelps professed her faith in Christ at the September Communion of 1840. To an eminent degree Miss Phelps illustrated the truth that what we are is more important than what we have. Her possessions were few, except those which are not usually considered "possessions" at all, — a humble, loving, cheerful, brave heart, and an inexhaustible interest in life. To the memories of those who knew her, she will ever be a touching and invigorating little figure.

Calendar for Week beginning December 4, 1904

7.30. Christmas meeting of the Courteous Circle. Special music. Reports of committees appointed in the summer for enlarged work. Postponed election of officers. Please bring ballots prepared.

8.00. At Christ Church Parish House, Y. M. C. A. League.

At 4.00 this afternoon there will be a mass meeting for men in the Baptist Church. Mr. W. J. Sholar, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Norfolk County, will be the speaker. It would help to make a good meeting, if every man in our church will be present.

The pastor and Mr. F. H. Foster represented the church at the ecclesiastical council in the Riverside Church, Wednesday.

A church, school-house and parsonage under one roof have been erected in one of the villages of the Marash Station, Turkey, as a memorial to Mrs. Clara Hamlin Lee, who had eagerly desired to have them built. Our Home Department contributed $30 towards the cost ($500), and Mrs. Lee's class in Abbot Academy were generous givers.

Calendar for Week beginning December 11, 1904

Mr. S. B. Whitney, whose fine setting of Hymn 489 is to be sung this morning by the choir, conducted the Andover Choral Union some twenty years ago.

The Women's Union barrel for Michigan grew to be two barrels before it was sent, valued at $138.

The Fair of the Courteous Circle was as bright and tasteful and pretty as any "Sale" held in town for many a day. $200 was netted for the Circle's work of kindness and blessing, with money still coming in. The "King's Daughters Calendar" is still on sale. This collection of cheery, helpful messages needs to be seen to be valued. It is something for its compilers to be proud of.

The Prudential Committee will meet all who desire to witness for Christ at the January Communion next week. Letters may be sent now to the pastor.

Calendar for Week beginning December 18, 1904

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 51 in the Psalter. Lessons, 2 Chronicles 29: 20–36, Hebrews 10. Hymns, 608 507, 43. Choir Hymn, No. 489 (Whitney). Address, "Our morning worship," 2 Chron. 29: 35.

8.30. The Prudential Committee will meet all who desire to witness for Christ at the January Communion.

THURSDAY.

6.30. Christmas Entertainment of the Sunday-School, under the auspices of the Women's Union. All members of the parish are invited. Singing by the Intermediate and Primary departments. Presentation of gifts by the School. The Living Wreath. Arrival of Santa Claus.

If the weather should be stormy, the entertainment will be postponed until Friday.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, whose fine setting of Hymn 489 is to be sung this morning by the choir, conducted the Andover Choral Union some twenty years ago.

The Lend-a-Hand Ten of the Courteous Circle is interested in a destitute family in town. Bedding and clothing, including shoes, are needed. The children of the family range from twelve years to one and a half, the oldest a girl, the other three, boys. These articles or money are solicited, and may be given to Mrs. B. S. Flagg, 27 Bartlet Street, or Mrs. F. A. Moore, 57 Elm Street.

The present officers of the Senior Y. P. S. C. E. are: President, Miss Hardy; vice-president, Miss H. Lindsay; treasurer, Miss Hunter; secretaries, Miss Clark and Miss F. Abbott; chairmen committees,—lookout, Miss Valpey; prayer meeting, Miss Cole; social, Miss Bailey; good literature, Miss Farnham; missionary, Miss F. Abbott; junior, Miss E. Hardy; floral, Mr. Lowd; music, Mr. G. White; pianists, Misses E. Hardy, G. Morse, H. Lindsay; librarian, Miss H. Bell.

Calendar for Week beginning December 23, 1904

TUESDAY.

3.30. Quarterly meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department.

7.15. In our vestry, Union Boys' Brigade Company.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Lecture preparatory to Communion.

THURSDAY.

3.30. Quarterly meeting of the Women's Union.

For the convenience of the ladies, it has been deemed best to hold the sewing meetings at 2.30 o'clock, and the missionary and prayer meetings at 3.30 o'clock; but in order to give time for the social hour at the quarterly meetings, these will be held at the old hour, 3.00 o'clock.

As these meetings come but three times a year, and as numbers give enthusiasm and encouragement to those whom you have chosen to serve you through the present year, the officers ask that the ladies of the church may make a special effort to be present and add to the good cheer.

It is impossible at this time to say what the program is to be, but a good meeting is assured as the last one of the year 1904.

DISMISSED — Dec. 21, Mrs. Florence Eliot Hitchcock to the South Church in Lawrence.

The pastor has received a few copies of our hymnbook, rebound and in good condition, which he will sell at cost, — 65 cents.

Calendar for Week beginning January 1, 1905.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 122 in the Psalter. Lesson, Psalm 46. Hymns, 572, 640. Solo, "Invocation," (Berwald), Miss Caroline J. Burtt. Sermon, "The Teaching of Life's Changes," Psalm 55 : 19.

The morning service will be followed by the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

12.00. Main department.

3.00. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. "Why God gives commandments," Exodus 19: 16 : 25.

7.30. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. "Our Goals for 1905," Philippians 3 : 12-16; leader, the President of the Society. Preparation meeting, 7.15.

TUESDAY.

3.30. Quarterly meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department.

7.15. In Free Church vestry, Union Boys' Brigade Company.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Our midweek meeting. Subject, "Paul or Demas—which shall I be?"

THURSDAY.

3.30. (Note the hour.) Prayer meeting of the Women's Union. This will be a mother's meeting, and all who are interested in the young are invited to attend. The Church will receive a blessing if many shall gather for this meeting, "with one accord in one place."

7.45. The Courteous Circle. Subject, "Past, Present and Future," treated by leaders and officers. Miss Cole will report her visit to Worcester this summer, and Mrs. Moore will give again the report of the Committee which was discussed and adopted at the last meeting. Please look over your envelopes, and begin the year square with the treasurer.

BAPTIZED, Christmas Day 1904—James Norman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cole.

A number of people in our parish wish to thank the mysterious "Little Opportunity Club" for gladdening remembrances at Christmas.

The annual supper and meeting of the Church will be held a week from Friday night. It will be preceded by three prayer meetings, in which the roll of the church will be called in three sections, names beginning with A—F on Tuesday night, H—N on Wednesday night, O—W on Thursday night. It is desired that every member shall respond with, at least, a verse of Scripture.

Calendar for Week beginning January 8, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Sermon, "Man's Reflection of Divine Light," John 5 : 35.

Other appointments for the day include meetings of the Junior Endeavor Society (3.00), and of the Senior Society (6.30), led by Mr. W. H. Gibson, — the subject, "The beginning of Christian life," John 3 : 1–8; also, at 7.30, the evening service. The pastor will preach on the words, "Lord, I believe; help thou my unbelief." Soloist, Miss Caroline J. Burtt.

MONDAY.

7.45. Choir rehearsal.

TUESDAY.

7.15. In Free Church vestry, Union Boys' Brigade Company.

7.45. First meeting in our "Week of Prayer." Subject, "Relation of Believers to the Saviour," Col. 2 : 7. Roll call of members of the Church. Names beginning with A, B, C, D, E and F.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Second meeting in our Week of Prayer. Subject, "Relation of Believers to One Another," Ephesians 2 : 21. Names will be called beginning with G, H, I, J, K, L, M and N.

THURSDAY.

3.30. (Note the hour.) Missionary meeting of the Women's Union. Subject, "Early Missions in Michigan."

7.45. Third meeting in our Week of Prayer. Subject, "Our Motto for the Church Year," 2 Cor. 4 : 2. Names beginning with O — W will be called.

FRIDAY.

6.30. Supper and annual meeting of the Church; reading of reports and election of officers.

We want the meetings of Tuesday — Friday to constitute a real Week of Prayer for the dwelling of God's spirit among us. All will be welcome and are urged to come, whether to respond to the call of their names or not. That response may be given simply by the word, "Here;" but it is hoped that members will at least read a verse of Scripture.

To the annual supper, all members of the church are invited; members of other churches worshipping with us; pew-holders; and members of the choir and staff of ushers. The past year has been one of many blessings; our gathering will properly be a thankful one. Regarding the elections, Mr. J. L. Brewster is the retiring deacon, and Mr. John V. Holt retires from the prudential committee.

Calendar for Week beginning January 15, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 55 in the Psalter. Lesson, 2 Chronicles 34: 1–33. Hymns, 634, 289, 542. Hymn for the Junior Endeavor Choir, "Stand up, stand up for Jesus." Address by Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D., president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, "World-wide Results of the Christian Endeavor Movement." Choir Sentence, "O Saviour of the world" (Sir John Goss).

7.15. In our vestry, Union Boys' Brigade Company.

7.30. With Miss Cole, 13 Chestnut street, important meeting of leaders and officers of the Courteous Circle.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Mid-week meeting. Address by Rev. Robert A. Hume, D.D., of Ahmednagar, India. Dr. Hume is perhaps the best known missionary of our Church. His more unusual services have been in connection with famine relief, orphanges, and industrial missions.

Dr. Hume will deliver the Hyde lectures in Bartlet Chapel this week. The first lecture, tomorrow at 4.30, will be upon "Missions and the Modern View." The following lectures will be on Tuesday at 4.00, Wednesday at 11.00 and 4.00, and Thursday and Friday at 4.00.

Hearty thanks are due Dea. Kimball's Sunday-school class for a new hymn-book, suitably inscribed for the pulpit, to replace one worn out.

On the whole, we were much favored in the weather for our roll-call. Gatherings were large the first two nights. The third meeting was smaller naturally, but, like the others, it was interesting and helpful; and how the riches of the Bible were unfolded in them all!

DISMISSED, Jan. 1 — Mr. J. Bradford Richards to the Presbyterian Church of West Pittston, Pa.

Blanche L. Cummings was a well-known younger member of this church twelve years ago. She had witnessed her faith here in 1890. She died in Lunenberg, Me., December 18, 1904.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the pastor, "Nicodemus." Soloist, Miss Ivy F. Pierce of Boston. Miss Pierce belongs to the same group of gospel singers as Miss Cabot, who sang last Sunday night.

MONDAY.

7.45. Choir rehearsal.

TUESDAY.

7.30. Union Boys' Brigade Company.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Our mid-week meeting. Subject, "People who want to become Christians and do not know how."

THURSDAY.

3.30. (Note the hour.) Mothers' meeting of the Women's Union. Address by Miss Macurdy, secretary of the Lawrence Y. W. C. A. With Miss Macurdy as speaker, an interesting meeting will be expected. It is hoped that many mothers and others interested in the young will be present.

7.30. The Courteous Circle. Letters will be read from Fisk University during the time usually alloted to the devotional meeting. Important changes in the Circle are in contemplation, which every member should know about. They can be fully explained only at this meeting. A full attendance is earnestly asked.

BAPTIZED, Jan. 22 — William Wallace, son of John P. and Bertha S. Torrey.

Miss Ellen Rogers professed her faith in Christ at the March Communion of 1875 in this church. She had lived in Newburyport for many years, but testified to her affection for the church by an unfailing message for our annual meeting.

Calendar for Week beginning February 5, 1905.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Mid-week meeting and conference on personal work. "People who would like to become Christians, but are afraid of failure."

THURSDAY.

2.30. Sewing meeting of the Women's Union.

FRIDAY.

7.45. Business meeting of the Y. P S. C. E., followed by social.

Miss Ellen Rogers' message for our last annual meeting was: "Walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called.—The openings of the streets of heaven are on earth."

The members of the Women's Union were privileged on Thursday in listening to Miss Macurdy, and the Courteous Circle in the evening in having with them Miss Colburn, the Conference Deaconess.

The indications of a revival, according to Dr. Finney: 1, The evident will of God; 2, When the wickedness of the wicked grieves Christians; 3, When Christians have a spirit of prayer for a revival; 4, When the attention of ministers is directed to this particular object; 5, When many people are asking how they may become Christians.

The Courteous Circle are requested to meet for a few minutes after the regular Sunday morning service.

Calendar for Week beginning February 12, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 79 in the Psalter. Hymns, 23, 339, 468. Sermon, by Rev. Daniel Merriman, D. D., of Boston. Choir Anthem, Luke 1 : 46-55 (music by Jamoneau).

Mrs. Mary Mooar Foster joined this Church by letter from the West Church at the May Communion of 1867. The best words which one can take to describe the character of this venerable lady are found in Mrs. Stowe's poem, "The Calm of the Soul":

> "Far, far away, the roar of passion dieth,
> And loving thoughts rise calm and peacefully,
> And no rude storm, how fierce so'er it flieth
> Disturbs the soul that dwells, O Lord, in Thee!"

We are also invited to the celebration of the Lord's Supper in Christ Church on Thursday night, "to unite in the commemoration of the Last Supper of our common Lord."

DISMISSED, April 5th — Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Karcher to the Howard Ave. (Congregational) Church, New Haven, Conn.

"Then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love." When Mrs Maria A. Barker died, these words came to mind. Her life had been a loving life. "And now abideth — love."

It is sad to have to record the death of Mrs. Carrie E. Cole. Her quiet life was great in its affections and loyal in its friendships. She was such a woman as wears no crown and yet reigns. She had witnessed to her faith in Christ at the January Communion of 1879.

7.45. Our Midweek Meeting. Topic, "The Blessings and Temptations Peculiar to Summertime." Mr. E. Francis Holt and Mr. J. H. Kimball, delegates to church councils last week, one at Riverside Church, Lawrence, the other at North Andover, will give their reports.

SATURDAY.

7.45. Choir rehearsal.

The Home Department social on Thursday was a success. The parlor was bright with summer flowers, and a cheerful spirit animated the representatives of a department which never closes, holding sessions all the year round.

The superintendent of the Intermediate Department is urging church attendance upon the scholars. This is an excellent campaign, and it is needed.

Kind affection will always grow warm at the thought of Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler. Faithful and true souls in themselves, they were true and faithful together They were singularly made for each other, and one cannot grieve that the survivor has gone where she wished to be.

Mrs. Phebe Russell Chandler joined this Church at the March Communion of 1834. For several years she only has remained of a witnessing company which included her future husband and some forty others. Hers was in fact the oldest membership in the church,—an honor that now passes to Mrs. Charlotte C. Smith.

Calendar for Week beginning June 4, 1905.

SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION DAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Rsponsive Reading, page 14 in the Psalter. Hymns, 212, 537, 504. Sermon by Rev. J. D. Kingsbury, D. D., superintendent of Congregational Home Missions in Southern Idaho, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department. Attendance last Sunday, 205.

Members of the Sunday School, assisted by the Choir. The Congregation will rise and join in "Jerusalem the Golden."

The world is very evil;
The times are waxing late:
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate:
The Judge That comes in mercy,
The Judge That comes with might,
To terminate the evil,
To diadem the right.
The world is very evil;
The times are waxing late:
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate:
When the just and gentle Monarch
Shall summon from the tomb,
Let man, the guilty, tremble,
For man, the GOD, shall doom.

Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead.
Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight,
The peace of all the faithful,
The calm of all the blest,
Inviolate, unvaried,
Divinest, sweetest, best.
Yes, peace! for war is needless,—
Yes, calm! for storm is past,—
And goal from finished labor,
And anchorage at last.

That peace —but who may claim it?
The guileless in their way,
Who keep the ranks of battle,
Who mean the things they say:
The peace that is for heaven,
And shall be for the earth:
The palace that re-echoes
With festal song and mirth:
The garden, breathing spices,
The paradise on high;
Grace beautified to glory,
Unceasing minstrelsy.
O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest:
True vision of true beauty,
Sweet cure of all distrest!
Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight!

Brief life is here our portion;
Brief sorrow, short-liv'd care;
The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life is there.
O happy retribution!
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!
And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown:
And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Zion, in her anguish,
With Babylon must cope:
But He Whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.
And none shall there be jealous;
And none shall there contend:
Fraud, clamor, guile — what say I?
All ill, ALL ill shall end!
And there is David's fountain,
And life in fullest glow,
And there the light is golden,
And milk and honey flow:
The light that hath no evening,
The health that hath no sore,
The life that hath no ending,
But lasteth evermore.

Order of the Service

For thee, O dear, dear Country!
Mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding
Thy happy name, they weep:
The mention of thy glory
Is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness,
And love, and life, and rest.
O come, O only mansion!
O Paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished
And smiles have no alloy.
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
The Crucified thy praise;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.

Yet when I fain would sing them
My spirit fails and faints,
And vainly would it image
The assembly of the Saints.
For there the band of Prophets
United praise ascribes,
And there the twelvefold chorus
Of Israel's ransomed tribes:
The lily-beds of virgins,
The roses' martyr-glow,
The cohort of the Fathers
Who kept the faith below.
With jaspers glow thy bulwarks;
Thy streets with emeralds blaze;
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays:
Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethyst unpriced:
The saints built up its fabric,
And the corner-stone is Christ.
O sweet and blessed Country,
Shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessed Country,
Shall I e'er win thy grace?
I have the hope within me
To comfort and to bless!
Shall I e'er win the guerdon?
O tell me, tell me, yes!

Exult, O dust and ashes,
The Lord shall be thy part:
His only, His for ever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art!
Exult, O dust and ashes!
The Lord shall be thy part:
His only, His for ever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art!

Jerusalem the golden,
With milk and honey blest,
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress;
I know not, oh, I know not
What joys await us there;
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!
They stand, those halls of Zion,
All-jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng:
The Prince is ever in them;
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.
There is the throne of David,—
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast;
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.
O sweet and blessed Country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed Country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest;
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Lecture preparatory to the Communion.

THURSDAY.

7.30. Quarterly Meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department.

The Scotland District School closed for the summer last Sunday. On a Saturday afternoon previously the teachers entertained the school on the grounds of Abbot Academy.

Calendar for Week beginning Sept. 10, 1905.

Since no calendars have been printed during the past two months, this first issue of the Fall is devoted to a review of the silent weeks.

During July our pulpit was occupied on successive Sundays by Messrs. J. J. Blair of Springfield, an affectionately remembered former pastor, J. A. Richards of Newport, R. I., R. A. MacFadden of Danvers, and R. G. Woodbridge of Somerville. Prof. W. S. Simonds of New York was welcome again as organist through Miss Cole's vacation. We enjoyed, as we still enjoy, the company of many members of the Seminary parish. During this same month prayermeetings were led by Dr. Ryder and Messrs. F. D. Green of New York and A. G. Cummings.

The Friday night neighborhood meeting has been kept up throughout the summer. Dea. E. F. Holt was its leader usually. It has been steadily earnest and helpful.

A vacation Sunday school was held during August, and hearty thanks must be given especially to Mr. Corwin F. Palmer and Mrs. Gertrude S. Foreman of Albion, N. Y., for their aid. On the last Sunday a number of bouquets were made for the Lawrence Hospital.

The Y. P. S. C. E. held a lawn party in July for the sake of the winter flower fund. And mention must be made here of the beautiful flowers that have adorned the pulpit throughout the summer. On two rainy Sundays they were especially gratifying to the comparatively few worshippers, — on one Sunday a large maltese cross of pond lilies furnished by Miss Cole's Sunday school class, and on the other an artistic arrangement of soft-colored wild carrot, Joe Pyeweed and sumac, made by the flower committee. While thinking of the services of the young people of the parish, we remember and regret Mr. C. M. Hemenway's resignation of the post of head usher, which he has filled very efficiently for a year past.

The very happy improvement of the ground in front of the church speaks for itself. It has followed the plans of Carl Rust Parker, who has contributed his trained taste to the work. $275 have been spent upon it under Mr. Vennard's careful superintendence. Of this amount $50 are still to be raised.

BAPTISM.

June 25, Willis Francis, son of Arthur D. and Nellie M. Barnes.

DISMISSION.

August 2, Rev. James Austin Richards to the United Congregational Church, Newport, R. I.

DEATHS.

June 27, Willis Francis Barnes.

July 24, Mrs. Anna Clement Berry, a loving and beloved member of this Church since May 7, 1865.

August 29, Mrs. Adeline Orcutt Fairbank.

Calendar for Week beginning Sept. 17, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 106 in the Psalter. Lessons, Proverbs 10 : 1-25, Matt. 26 : 1-13. Hymns, 18, 214, 376. Sermon by Rev. Arthur G. Cummings, "Memory as a Spiritual Power," Prov. 10 : 7.

10.30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department. Attendance last Sunday, 190.

6.30. Union meeting of the Senior and Junior Y. P. S. C. E.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by Mr. Cummings, "Seeing One's Self," Luke 5 : 8.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. Our midweek meeting. Subject, "The Abundant Life : how get it? how use it?" John 10 : 7-10.

THURSDAY.

3.30. Home Missionary meeting of the Woman's Union. Miss Miriam L. Woodbury, Field Secretary of the W. H. M. A., will speak of the "Frontier of 1905."

The Sunday school opened with an attendance of 190. That figure needs a little rallying but not very much. It was excellent for the first Sunday after vacation.

It is pleasant to have in our pulpit today one who grew up in our own church. And another is to be installed on Wednesday pastor of the United Church in Newport, R. I. Newport is too far from Andover for us to be represented by a large delegation; but Mr. Richards and the United Church may feel assured that many of us would like to be there.

Today we welcome back the teachers and scholars of Abbot Academy.

Next week will be occupied with special meetings in this church. For convenience sake we shall call Monday night, Sunday school night; Tuesday, church and home night; Wednesday, church officers' night; Thursday, women's night; Friday, young people's night. It will help every department if we show our interest in each by attending as many of these meetings as we can. Fuller details will be given in next week's calendar.

Calendar for Week beginning Sept. 24, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 33 in the Psalter. Lessons, 2 Kings 5: 1-17, Luke 17: 11-19. Hymns 357, 623, 364. Sermon, "Prayer and Afterwards," Luke 17: 18.

10 30. The sub-primary department of the Bible School.

11.50. Main department.

6.30. Union meeting of the Senior and Junior Christian Endeavor Societies. "The Great Surrender," Acts 9: 1-22; leader, Miss Louise Hardy.

7.30. Evening Worship. Sermon by the pastor, "Led Instead of Leading," 1 Samuel 15.

MONDAY.

7.45. Meeting of conference and prayer for the Sunday-school. The Topics treated will include New Features of the School, The Teacher and the Book, The Teacher and the Pupil, The Teacher and His Master. Expected speakers are Mr. Walter S. Ray, Miss Cole, Mr. Carlton, Mrs. F. H. Foster.

TUESDAY.

3.30. Annual meeting of the Visitors of the Home Department.

7.45. "Church and Home." Topics for the evening, Aim of the Home Department, The Bible in the Home, Sunday in the Home—Rev. Mr. Wilson, Mr. Lawrence and Dr. Guy Gilbert will be among the speakers. The prayer meeting to close this conference will be led by Rev. Mr. Torrey. Miss Mabel Carter will sing the "Glory Song," mentioned in most accounts of the Torrey-Alexander meetings in England and Australia.

WEDNESDAY.

7.45. This, the "Church Officers' Night," will be introduced by "A Hope for the Church this Fall," and closed by "A Word of Exhortation" by Rev. Markham Stackpole.

THURSDAY.

7.45. The "Women's Night" will have Miss Mary Alice Abbot, Mrs. Pratt, Rev. Mr. Belknap and others among its participants.

FRIDAY.

7.45. "Young People's Night" will end these Autumn meetings. The Y. P. S. C. E. and the Y. M. C. A. will be represented by their presidents, Miss Florence Abbott and Mr. George White. Mr. Curtis will speak on "The Morning of Life: its Promise, its Peril;" and Rev. Mr. Park will give the final word.

8.00. Neighborhood prayer meeting with Mr. Murphy, Lewis street.

Calendar for Week beginning October 1, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 34 in the Psalter. Lessons, Psalm 92, Galatians 4. Hymns, 24, 470, 296. Children's Sermon, "Slings" 1 Samuel 17:40. Sermon, "The Growth of Christ in Us," Galatians 4 : 19.

THURSDAY.

3.30. Prayer meeting of the Women's Union. Subject, "Christ's Strength Made Perfect in Our Weakness," 2 Cor. 12 :9, leader, Mrs. L. F. Hardy. The ladies of the parish are most cordially invited to be present at this first Women's Union prayer meeting of the season.

7.45. The Courteous Circle. Mrs. Charles Walworth of Lawrence will be the speaker. This will be a pleasure which has long been anticipated.

FRIDAY.

8.00. Neighborhood prayer meeting with Mr. Murphy, Lewis street.

Our main Sunday-school room was greatly improved during the summer by the addition of a large photograph of Hoffman's painting, "Christ in Peter's Boat." The size and beauty of the picture quite change the general aspect of the room. It was the gift of Miss Mabel Carter and her class, Messrs. Chester Abbott, Roderick Cannon, George Chandler, Gerald D'Arcy, Philip Foster, William Hardy, John Morrissey, William Ross, Wendell Wright.

Owing to the regretted resignation of Mrs. Paradise, the Home Department Visitors elected (in part) new officers on Thursday : president, Miss Mary E. Carter; vice-president and treasurer, Miss Robinson ; secretary (re-elected), Miss Poor. The department is now raising money to support its village school in Aintab, Turkey.

Calendar for Week beginning October 8, 1905.

SUNDAY.

10.30. Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 36 in the Psalter. Lessons, Exodus 33: 17-34:8, Titus 3. Hymns, 111, 518 239. Sermon, "God is Love," Titus 3: 4-7.

We welcome to the pulpit this morning the pastor of the Riverside Church in Lawrence, who came among us nine months ago from the Congregational Church in Newcastle, N. H.

Mr. Arthur G. Cummings was ordained and installed pastor of the First Congregational Church in Middleboro on Tuesday. His clear and frank utterances in the examining council were followed with much approval, and we trust that a long and useful ministry of the Gospel has begun.

A movement has been started among the C. E. Societies of the world to build a memorial building in Boston, which shall lift the heavy financial burden which now rests on the general officers. Past members of our own society are asked to contribute 25 cents each to this fund, giving the money to either Miss Valpey or Mr. Edward Clark.

Calendar for Week beginning December 3, 1905.

ORDER OF SERVICE

PROCESSIONAL: "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing." . . The Main School.
(The Congregation will join in this, the third stanza.)

Hail! the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail! the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Ris'n with healing in his wings:

Mild He lays His glory by,
Born that man no more may die;
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

SALUTATION: Rev. 21:3, Isa. 9:6, Luke 2:11. . . . . The Pastor.

A CHRISTMAS WELCOME. . . . . .
James Batchelor, Henry Burtt, Herbert Holt, Dana Lowd.

THE DOXOLOGY. (All standing.) . . . . . The Congregation.

RESPONSIVE READING: Psalm 19 (All standing.) . . The Congregation.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

THE GLORIA. (All standing.) . . . . . The Congregation.

THE LESSON: Luke 2:1–14.

CAROL: "Silent Night, Holy Night." . . . . . The Main School.

RECITATION. . . . . Mabel Marshall, Maud Orcutt, Edith Wade.

CAROL: "In the Field with Their Flocks." . . . . . The Choir.

ORDER OF SERVICE

RESPONSIVE READING: Luke 1:46–55. . . . . The Congregation.

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN. Tune, "Christmas." (All standing.)

Calm on the listening ear of night,
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains.

The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply;
And greet, from all their holy heights,
The day-spring from on high.

O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm,
And Sharon waves in solemn praise,
Her silent groves of palm.

"Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring,—
"Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's eternal King!"

THE MINISTER — The Lord be with you.

THE PEOPLE — And with thy spirit.

THE LORD'S PRAYER. (All sitting, bowed in prayer.) . The Congregation.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND RESPONSE.

SOLO: "Bright was the Morn" . . . . . Mrs. John H. Campion.

RECITATION . . . . . William Buchan, Arthur Symonds.

RECITATION: "Christmas Service" . . . . . Phillips Morrison.

RECITATION: "A Constant Christmas." . . . . Marjorie Jaquith.

OFFERTORY.

CAROL: "Holy Night! Peaceful Night!" . . . . The Main School.

THE DOXOLOGY. (All standing.) . . . . . The Congregation.

OFFERTORY PRAYER. (All standing.)

THE SERMON: "Room for the Saviour", Luke 2:7.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN. Tune, "Antioch." (All standing.)

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns;
Let men their songs employ; [plains
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and
Repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

PRAYER, BENEDICTION AND SILENT PRAYER. (All sitting.)

SATURDAY

3.00-5.00 In Phillips Chapel, Methuen, the Merrimack Valley League of The King's Daughters will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the Order. Subject, "The Value of the Order to the Church, to 'Shut-ins,' to Hospitals, and to the Spiritual Life," the last speaker being Mrs. F. H. Foster of Andover. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The treasurer is glad to announce that gifts received just at the close of December bring our benevolences to a figure, not less, but slightly greater than that of last year. It is most satisfactory that in the year when the missionary societies were piling up formidable debts, our own church did not fail them, while at the same time it has itself no deficit.

Calendar for Week beginning January 14, 1906.

SUNDAY.

10.30 Morning Worship. Responsive Reading, page 53 in the Psalter. Lessons, Isaiah 50 : 4–51 : 3, Philippians 4 : 8–23. Hymns, 130, 636, 390. Sermon, "I have learned," Philippians 4 : 11.

7.45 Neighborhood meeting at Mr. Blunt's, Central street; leader, Mr. Clifford Miller.

FRIDAY

6.30 Supper and annual meeting of the Church; reading of reports and election of officers. All members of the church are invited to the supper; also, members of other churches worshipping with us, pew-holders, and helpers of the church holding office (Sunday-school teachers, ushers and others). We expect that this will be a happy occasion. The year just closed brought many blessings to the church life,—no less real in that some of them walked with quiet feet, and we have scarcely realized the general harmony of the year and the faithfulness of many of our workers.

Next Sunday (the 21st) a special offering will be made to defray the cost of the supper, about $100. Envelopes will be provided in the pews.

Dr. Barton, the manly, earnest and honored secretary of the American Board, will give the first two lectures on "The Regeneration of Turkey," in Bartlet Chapel, Thursday and Friday at 4.00.

THURSDAY.

2.30 Sewing Meeting of the Women's Union. Sewing for a home missionary family in Croydon, N. H.

7.45 Neighborhood Meeting at Mr. George Shepard's, Park street; leader, Mr. J, E. Murphy.

The annual meeting was held on Friday night with much good cheer. 176 sat down to the supper preceding. The long tables were beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, silver candle sticks and their shades which looked like beds of jonquils. A larger proportion than usual of our older members was present, and social talk postponed the business meeting overlong, but the whole occasion was emphatically pleasant.

The new officers elected are: clerk, Mr. Gutterson; treasurer, Mr. Alden; anditor, Mr. E. K. Jenkins; deacon, Dr. C. H. Gilbert; deaconesses, Miss M. A. Abbot, Mrs. J. W. Barnard, Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Mrs. Shaw; members of the Prudential committee, for four years, Mr. F. B. Jenkins; for two years, Rev. Mr. Torrey; S. S. superintendent, Mr F. H. Foster; assistants, Mr. J. E. Holt, Miss L. E. Hardy, Miss M. W. Burtt, Miss Charlotte Baker; secretary, Miss H. W. Carter; assistant treasurer, Mr. G. B. Ripley.

The Church voted to adopt the "individual Communion service" and accepted the gift of such a service from a kind, unknown giver, who presents it as a sacred memorial to a friend.

Summaries of the annual reports will be printed next week.

The Teachers' Training Class will meet next Sunday. Please pass the text-book promptly.

Calendar for Week beginning January 28, 1906.

SUNDAY.

8.00-10.00 The Courteous Circle (and especially its honorary members) are invited to meet Mrs. Gertrude Meggett of Cambridge, president of the Massachusetts Division of the International Sunshine Society, at Miss Erving's, 43 Salem street.

In the Name of the South Church, we wish to express to Mrs. J. Warren Barnard our hearty thanks for her gift to the church of a new Communion Service. We recognize the love for the church which prompted the offering and are sure that such an evidence of affection will but increase the loyalty of others to this Christian fellowship of ours. Nor do we forget the memorial character of the gift. We desire to record here our own remembrance of Mr. Barnard's large support of the church during many years, and we appreciate the giver's desire to link his name with hers in the beautiful benefaction.

George A. Parker,
Frank T. Carlton,
David Shaw.

January 19, 1906.

Last week the Women's Union, also, received a gift from Mrs. Barnard, — a gladly welcomed sewing machine, with the latest improvements.
